POSITION OPENING - SCHOOL DIRECTOR
EDUCARE CALIFORNIA AT SILICON VALLEY

POSITION SUMMARY
Educare California at Silicon Valley (ECSV) is an innovative early learning center that narrows the opportunity gap for low-income children ages 0-5 and their families and caregivers. With our partners, we offer 12 high-quality, full-day, year-round classrooms as well as support services and community resources through our Family Resource Center, satellite children’s museum, and satellite public library. Our free services are offered in English, Spanish, and Vietnamese.

Building on the program foundations of Early Head Start and Head Start, ECSV promotes school readiness by implementing effective programming aimed at preventing the development of an achievement gap in the early years. ECSV is part of a national initiative that serves as a platform for broader change, inspiring high-quality programs in communities, improving public policies within each state, and demonstrating a comprehensive approach to the first five years of life and learning. As part of the Educare initiative, ECSV is a highly visible program that is host to a wide variety of visitors. The Educare model draws on a unique blend of private and public dollars, including Early Head Start, Head Start, and other state and local education funding streams.

The School Director provides visionary leadership to Educare staff in the implementation of the Educare program and its core features, and is responsible for planning, implementing and supervising all operations as well as leading ongoing program planning and alignment of the multiple partners operating the facility. The School Director is responsible for the day-to-day management of the school, ensuring the implementation of comprehensive services at Educare including evidence-based early childhood education for low-income families and their children ages birth to five, family support and engagement, health, nutrition, mental health, and social services in compliance with Head Start Performance Standards, and state and local regulatory guidelines.

REPORTING RELATIONSHIPS
The School Director is supervised by the ECSV Executive Director. The School Director provides daily guidance to the Leadership team.
